

Application for Myra Sadker Undergraduate Scholarship

These scholarships are designed to attract and reward undergraduate students committed to educational equity, particularly gender equity. Applicants should be attending or preparing to attend an accredited college or university and be planning to teach at the elementary or secondary level. This $2,000 annual scholarship is renewable and may be applied to pay for tuition or other academic costs. Scholarships will be awarded based on student commitment to and history of advocating for gender equity.

Deadline for submission: December 1

Award Announcements: March 5

Submitting materials online is preferred:

dsadker@gmail.com

If not submitted online, send to:

Myra Sadker Foundation
6988 N. Chula Vista Reserve Place
Tucson, AZ 85704

1. Personal

Name
Permanent address
College (or current high school)
School address
Telephone
Email

2. Brief Personal Overview

- A. Submit a one paragraph biographical sketch, including your academic standing, GPA, non-academic activities, and other relevant information. Be sure to include any special high school and/or college academic or non-academic accomplishments.
- B. Describe any other scholarships or awards you have received or are receiving.
- C. Please describe any financial need (which is a factor in decision-making, but not the only factor).

3. Essay (3-5 pages)

Describe how your past and current activities build upon the work and values that exemplify Myra Sadker's contributions, such as educational equity, fairness in school, and honoring differences. You can also discuss how your career in the classroom will build upon these values.

4. Transcript (3-5 pages)

Submit an official high school (and if you are a sophomore or higher, a college transcript as well) with this application.

5. References

Submit two letters of references—one academic and one community service. These can be submitted online.